

Mr. Conover does not recall seeing any scratches on Mrs. Hall's face.

With respect to Dr. Hall's connections before he left Basking Ridge, Dr. Conover suggested someone might talk with a Mr. James Bathgate, a neighbor of a Whitnel family, to the youngest of whose daughters, Gertrude, Dr. Hall was quite attentive. Dr. Conover understands that a brother of Mrs. Whitnel is a detective in Newark.

Further information concerning Dr. Hall in Basking Ridge probably can be obtained from or through Mr. Herbert Hankinson, who lives on the road between Basking Ridge and Morristown and makes a business of taking care of other peoples dogs, etc. Whoever goes to Mr. Hankinson must introduce himself through a statement that Mr. Carpenter was a partner of Mr. Hanson Duval until Mr. Duval's death a few months ago and that they are sent to Mr. Hankinson by Mr. Robert Sedgewick.

R. H. Neilson